

Mary Leonard Law Society

Thursday, 4/20/2010, Noon – 1:00 p.m.

Ford Hall Board Room, Willamette University

CLE – Three Perspectives on Domestic Violence

The Mary Leonard Law Society is proud to present a one-hour CLE on Domestic violence. This brownbag presentation will feature three perspectives on domestic violence with the assistance of panelists Jayne Downing, Executive Director of the Mid Valley Women's Crisis Service, Chris Sielicky, attorney for The Marion—Polk Legal Aid Service, and Deputy District Attorney Amy Queen of The Marion County District Attorney's Office. Stay tuned for more information About CLE credit and cost for participants interested in obtaining CLE credit.

Cost for CLE credit is $10 to non-MLLS members and free to MLLS members
(1 hour of General Credits).

Link to Bios and CLE materials

www.maryleonardlawsociety.org